

Legends in Nephrology

Legends whose contributions inspire us even today!

*Prof. Vidhya N. Acharya
(1938- 2014)*

IN LOVING MEMORY

Prof Vidhya N Acharya

→ 1938 - 2014 ←

♥ Remembering on her 12 yr of passing. ♥

Your legacy of knowledge, kindness and dedication will forever be our guiding light.

*A Pioneer. A Teacher. A Trailblazer.
An Inspiration Forever.*

REMEMBERING ON HER
12TH YEAR OF PASSING

Prof. Vidhya N. Acharya

(1938 – 2014)

First Lady Nephrologist of India

A Visionary Who Built the Foundations

- ✦ India's first woman nephrologist
- ✦ Pioneer in dialysis and kidney care
- ✦ Mentor to generations of nephrologists
- ✦ A life dedicated to patients, teaching and building the nephrology community

*"She opened doors when there were none, she showed the path when it was new,
and she lifted many so they could rise."*

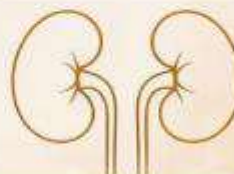

Remembering her
with gratitude and pride.

Her legacy lives on in every nephrologist she inspired.

TO ALL NEPHROLOGISTS

Let us take a moment to remember Prof. Vidhya N. Acharya for her pioneering contributions and dedicated service that shaped nephrology in India.

Let her vision continue to guide our journey.

MBBS, MD,

Seth GS Medical College and KEM Hospital Mumbai.

Nephrology training at University of Leeds

Firsts to her credit @King Edward VII Memorial (KEM) Hospital

Nephrology Dept

Transplantation unit

Cd Tx

PG Course

Rtd as Prof & HOD

Sr. Consultant

Director PG Studies

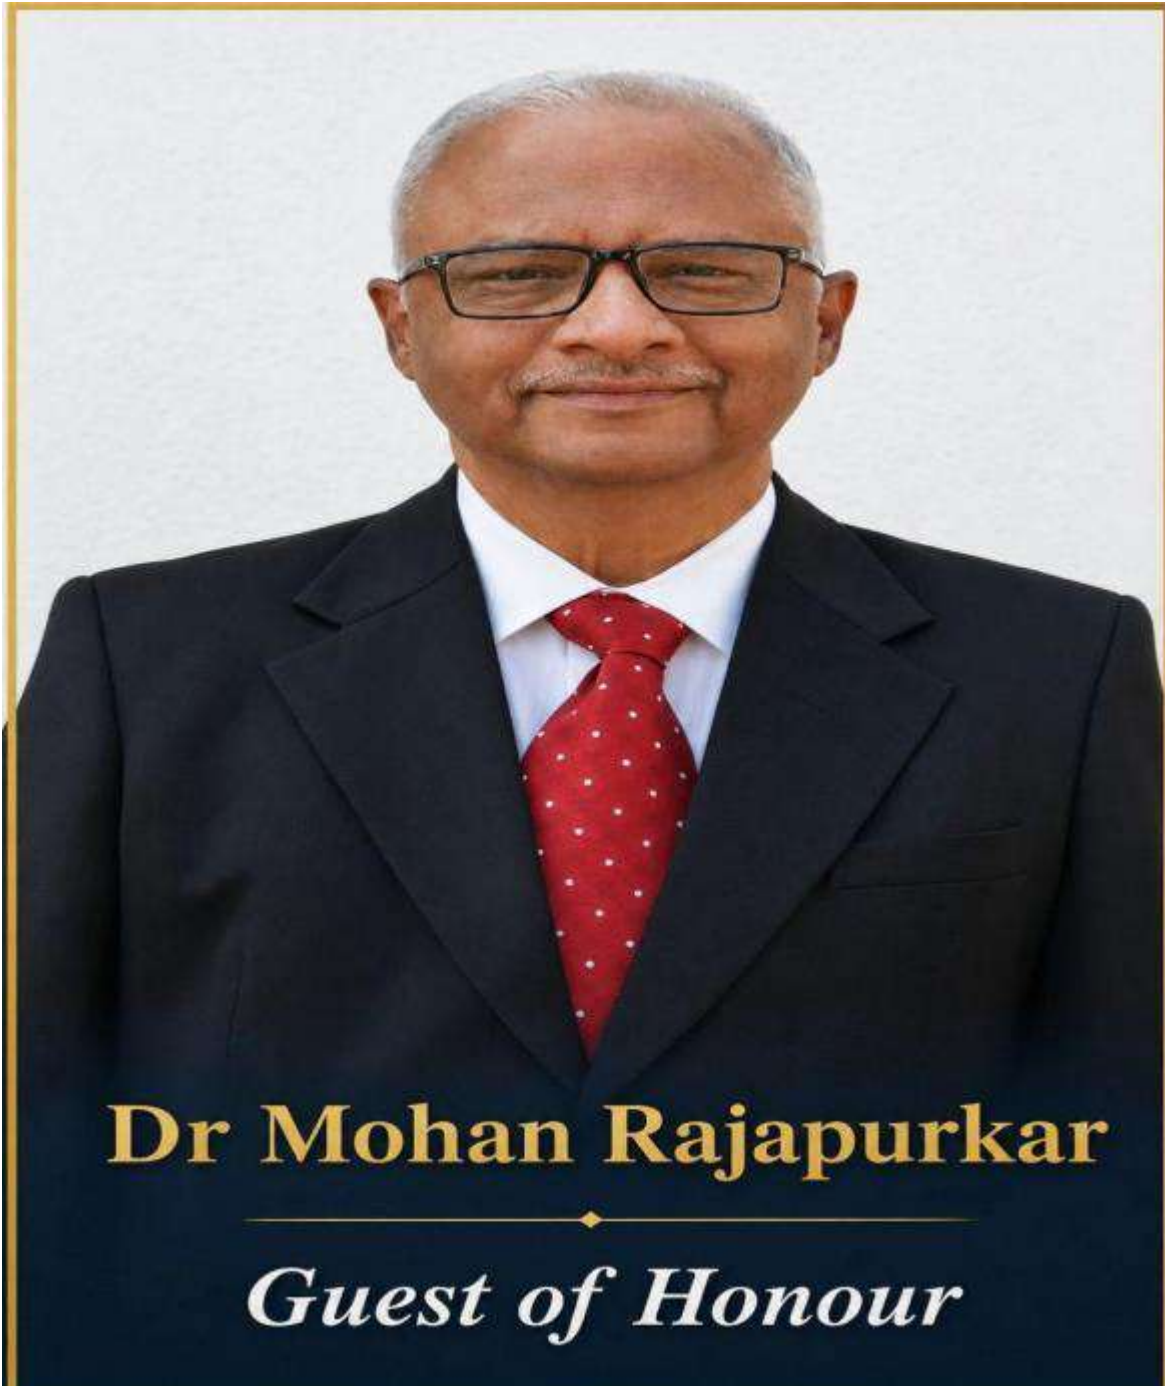

Muljibhai Patel Urological Hospital

Several Publications and Chapters in Books

Founder member, President of ISN ISOT
International Federation of Kidney Disease (IFKF)
Lifetime Achievement Award by ISN. The Pioneer Award
Was an “Iron Lady”
Good Discipline, Tough taskmaster, Able administrator and a Strong Motivator

Known as “Mother of Nephrology”

Tough times don't last, tough people do!

To pay Tribute